

Interpreter support

The services of an interpreter can be made available to you if this is necessary for your examination or treatment.

The staff will decide whether or not this is the case and will contact the interpreter accordingly.